GBank Financial Holdings Inc Announces Potential Merger of BankCard Services, LLC and GBank

LAS VEGAS, NV, November 2, 2023 – GBank, a subsidiary of GBank Financial Holdings Inc. (OTCQX: GBFH), today announced that its Board has formed a subcommittee comprised of four entirely disinterested directors to explore the potential merger of BankCard Services, LLC (“BCS”) and the Bank. This disinterested board subcommittee is tasked with the duty to review any proposed transaction and is authorized to engage a third party to deliver a fairness opinion regarding any potential transaction.

About BankCard Services, LLC

In 2015, BankCard Services, LLC and GBank entered into a sponsorship and program management agreement, with subsequent amendments, whereby, among other things, GBank agreed to sponsor certain prepaid programs and BCS agreed to act as program manager for those prepaid programs. BCS continues to maintain business relationships with various entities that have customers who may benefit from the prepaid programs.

BCS developed its proprietary “Pooled Player Account Powered by PIMS™” and the “Pooled Customer Account Powered by CIMS™,” which provide the Pooled Account structure with FDIC-insured individual player ledger accounts that enable digital cashless transactions for clients’ customers.

About GBank Financial Holdings Inc.
